

Membership of the NAG

The NAG represents the interests of the aviation sector: aircraft construction, aircraft maintenance and airport development. Members are industry, knowledge institutions and the educational field. Members of the NAG are actively supported in improving their competitive position and doing business internationally. In addition, the NAG offers knowledge of collective importance. Membership of the NAG also offers a wide range of services that could provide financial benefits to entrepreneurs.

Collective interests

The NAG contributes to the increase in turnover and continuity of its members through knowledge transfer and trade promotion activities.

- The NAG represents members' interests at national and international (governmental) institutions.
- The NAG raises awareness of the aviation sector through an extensive network, publications, website, and social media.
- The NAG facilitates "Lucht- en Ruimtevaart Nederland" and works closely with LRN to represent members' interests towards Dutch politics.
- The NAG facilitates the Netherlands Aerospace NDT Board and works closely with the NANDTB to enable the certification of Level 3 NDT personnel and to promote knowledge about NDT.

Advancing knowledge

The NAG provides its members with a wide range of knowledge, particularly towards SMEs. Much knowledge comes from members who are willing to share their knowledge.

- The NAG organizes various clusters amongst members based on product-market combinations for mutual exchange of knowledge and increasing market opportunities.
- The NAG organizes courses, initiates meetings, and carries out specific projects on relevant topics, including certification, innovation, export control, quality systems, HR challenges, and grant applications.

International Business support

The NAG is involved in both national and international (development) projects and stimulates the participation of its members.

- With local NAG representation in Brazil, Turkey, and the United Kingdom, along with the network of embassies and consulates, members have access to worldwide marketing and sales support.
- The NAG offers support in collective business development by setting up business cases, in which members work together and thus increase the chance of success.
- The NAG organizes collective participation at international aviation related events and exhibitions.
- The NAG initiates and organizes trade missions to new and existing markets.
- Through seminars, match-make events, the participation of administrators and company visits, the collective participation in exhibitions and trade missions is enriched.

Practical benefits

As NAG member you also benefit from various practical benefits.

- Contributing to the policy and activities of the NAG.
- Discount on collective exhibitions, trade missions, training courses, and classes.
- Listing your company on the NAG website, in the newsletter, brochures, annual reports and at international exhibitions.
- Access to the entire NAG network and specific market information.

Would you like to take advantage of these benefits immediately and, together with the NAG, strengthen the Dutch aviation sector in the Netherlands and beyond?

Then become a member of the NAG!

Membership fee NAG 2024

Membership fee

The current contribution scale of the NAG is based on the following grading method according to classification of the number of employees within the company working specifically for the aviation sector.

Category 1	0 u/w 25 employees	€ 3418	per calendar year
Category 2	26 u/w 100 employees	€ 4268	per calendar year
Category 3	101 u/w 250 employees	€ 5562	per calendar year
Category 4	251 u/w 500 employees	€ 6826	per calendar year
Category 5	501 or more employees	€ 7683	per calendar year

Registration fee € 3833

The registration fee is a one-off payment upon registering for a membership.

Cluster discount

Clusters of companies belonging to a consortium or holding receive a discount on the membership fee. This does not apply to the registration fee. This percentage is determined as follows:

2 participants	10% each
3 participants	15% each
4 participants	20% each
5 of more participants	25% each

“Starters” membership

Especially for start-ups, the NAG offers the possibility to be a Starter member for a limited period. A Starter is, in principle, a company that at the time of registration has not existed for longer than two years and has a maximum of four employees.

The membership fee is significantly lower, knowing:

€ 1711 per calendar year and
€ 830 registration fee

The maximum duration of the Starters membership is two years.

After these two years, the membership can be converted into a normal membership whereby the registration fee already charged, is deducted from the total registration fee applicable in the year of entry.

Terminating membership

The membership will be renewed annually on 1 October.

The termination of the NAG membership must be submitted in writing to the NAG office before October 1st.